The Answer

Representing Yourself in an Eviction Case

How to Defend Your Eviction Case

As a tenant, you have many rights that you may use to defend yourself against an eviction. The Answer is the court document that helps you tell your story to the judge.

What Is an Answer

This Answer form includes basic Defenses and Counterclaims.

- Defenses are the legal reasons why you should not be evicted. Example: The landlord is evicting you for not paying the rent and you paid the rent.
- Counterclaims are your claims against your landlord for money or for a court order telling your landlord to do (or stop doing) something. You may or may not be able to file counterclaims, depending on the reason for which you are being evicted. When you fill out the Answer form, it will guide you through whether you can file counterclaims.

Example: If you're being evicted for nonpayment of rent, bad conditions, such as lack of heat or a broken stove, make your home worth less than the rent the landlord is charging and may entitle you to money and an order that the landlord make repairs. However, if you were being evicted for bothering your neighbors, this would be considered a "fault" eviction and you could not raise a counterclaim.

You may have other claims that are not listed on this form. There is blank space to add claims.

Try to Get Legal Help

This form does not take the place of a lawyer. If you can, you should try to get a lawyer. Some courts have a Lawyer for a Day program offering free legal advice on your court day: Be sure to use this program if you do not have your own lawyer.

Fill Out this Answer Form As Soon As Possible!

You must get your Answer to the court and the landlord (or the landlord's attorney) on or before the first Monday after the Entry Date listed on your Summons. The day your Answer is due – the Answer date – should also be listed on the bottom of your Summons. If that Monday is a legal holiday, it is due the next day.

BOOKLET

If you are unsure about when your Answer is due, call the court clerk.

Produced by the Mass. Law Reform Institute, with assistance from legal services offices in Massachusetts, and available online at www.MassLegalHelp.org.

Mailing this form on your Answer date is not good enough. Both the court and your landlord (or the landlord's attorney, if the attorney signed the eviction complaint) must receive it on or before that date. Hand-deliver it if you are not sure it will be received by that date. Sometimes landlords or their attorneys will accept service by fax or email—you can ask.

If your Answer date has passed, file a Motion for Leave to File Answer Late stating a good reason for not filing on time. Attach your completed Answer form to the Motion to show the court you have good claims.

Also look on your Summons to see which court is hearing your case. If your case is not in Housing Court, and where you live has a Housing Court, you can transfer the case to the Housing Court, but you should still file the Answer in the court where the case was filed.

How to Use This Answer Form

Try to Get Legal Assistance

If you are eligible for free legal assistance, many Legal Services offices in Massachusetts have clinics that can help you fill out the attached Answer form. Contact your local legal services program to find out more about these clinics. To find a legal service program in your area go to: www.MassLegalHelp.org and click on "Find Legal Aid."

You also have a right to request Discovery. Discovery allows you to get information from your landlord to help you prove your case. If you request Discovery, this also postpones your eviction trial for two weeks. But your trial will be postponed ONLY if the Discovery request is received by the court and your landlord when your Answer is due. If you want to request Discovery, use Booklet 4: Discovery. You can also contact your local legal services program and ask for Booklet 4: Discovery.

Complete the Top of the Answer Form

- a. Write the county you live in, if you know it. The counties in Massachusetts are: Barnstable, Berkshire, Bristol, Dukes, Essex, Franklin, Hampden, Hampshire, Middlesex, Nantucket, Norfolk, Plymouth, Suffolk, and Worcester.
- b. Write the Original Trial Date, which you will find on your Summons and Complaint. If you are filling out a request for Discovery, your trial is automatically rescheduled for 2 weeks later. Check "Rescheduled" and write in the date that is exactly 2 weeks later than the Original Trial Date.
  - If you request a jury trial, the Original or Rescheduled Trial Date may become your pre-trial conference date (at which time a jury trial date will usually be assigned). Check with the Clerk's office to find out when the pre-trial conference is being scheduled.
- c. Write your landlord's name as it is on the Summons and Complaint.
- d. Write your name as it is on the Summons and Complaint. If your name is listed incorrectly you can ask the court to fix it later, but if you do not copy your name exactly how it is on the - Summons and Complaint, your Answer form might not get filed correctly by the clerk's office.

- e. Copy the name of the court from the upper-right-hand corner of the Summons and Complaint form.
- f. Fill in the Docket Number, if you know it. The Docket Number is the number the court has assigned to your case. Sometimes it has not yet been assigned to your case, so it will not be on the Summons and Complaint. You may ask the court for this number, or leave it blank.
- g. After completing the Answer form, check off "Counterclaims" if you have checked any boxes in the Answer form under claims listed as both Defenses and Counterclaims.

Think about whether you may want a jury to hear your case rather than a judge. If you want to request a Jury Trial, check off the box "With Jury Trial Request" on the first page of the Answer and on the last page of the form also check off "I claim my right to a trial by jury." You must claim your right to a jury on or before your Answer deadline or you lose that right. While it is possible to waive or give it up later, you are not entitled to a jury trial if you do not request it on time.

Fill Out the Rest of the Answer Form as Appropriate for Your Case

This Answer form lists the most common Defenses and Counterclaims that tenants can use to prevent an eviction. When you fill out the Answer form, do not be afraid to check off all the defenses and counterclaims, where permitted, that are supported by the facts in your case so they can be heard by the court. Otherwise, you will need to get a judge's permission to add a defense or claim later.

- If you are being evicted for nonpayment of rent or for a reason that is not your fault, you are allowed to use counterclaims to defend against and prevent your eviction.
- If you are a former owner and claim that the plaintiff did not properly foreclose on the property, you can counterclaim to challenge the foreclosure.

If you are being evicted for "fault" (something the landlord claims you did wrong, other than nonpayment of rent), you may not be able to bring counterclaims in this case. At the end of the Answer form, check off What You Want the Court to Do.

Deliver the Answer Form

- Sign your full name and print your address and telephone number.
- Remove the Answer form from this booklet. Make 2 copies—one for yourself and one for your landlord (or his/her lawyer).
- Deliver the original Answer to the court. Do not deliver a copy to the court. It must be the original.
- Ask the court to stamp the date on your copy so that you have proof that you filed it on time.
- Deliver a copy of the Answer to your landlord (or his/her lawyer) by the Answer date.
- Keep your copy to bring to court.
